SOPHOMORE YEAR

September, 1935—Once again the "Village" is awakened by the pattering feet of some 290 bewildered Sophomores. Members of the G. A. A. are entertained with acrobatic dancing by a wee scrub, Delsie Malsbary.

October—Ray Jouanicot wins R.O.T.C. honors for the recruits.

November—"Row, row, row your boat," in which Kathleen Shea, and Betty Rowe, paddle forward as members of the winning crew.

December—Billy Repose gets all A's.

January—"We're hot stuff" now—real high-sophomores.

February—Home Room representatives enter the picture and are Otto Mueller, Jack Murray, Gene Smith, Delsie Malsbary, Marie Telles and Erna Liebelt. Alice Davidson also sells fewer student body cards than anyone else in all of Roosevelt.

March—Mary Joan Goodman becomes a volley-ball captain of the winning team. Edith Holt attends G. A. A. Federation at U. C.

April—Elections—Bill Morris chosen to be president of our class. Bill Zach and Howard Studebaker receive corporal rating in R. O. T. C.

May—Peeping 'round corners and such, we take possession of Roosevelt's new building.

June—"Happy days are here again" — summer vacation has once more rolled round our way.

JUNIOR YEAR

September—Back to school. Ted Johnson and Gerry Shainin rate as super card-salesmen. Leta Craft is vice-president of the G. A. A.

October—We witness football games and its heroes who are: Hal Clark, Louis Gomez and Bernard Doling—We didn't win the O. A. L.

November—Martin Wright is elected class president. Rose Martin is president of the Spanish club. Oakland-San Francisco Bay Bridge opens—A lot of us take the day off to see the sights.

December—"Cornelia," a Roman bride, was acted by Ruth Gaston at a program given for the P. T. A.

January—Norbert Ferrerra and Dick Kelly become hoop heroes—we still didn't win the O. A. L.

Secretary-Treasurer Margie Hall
Advisor Miss Hansen

Log

February—The inevitable has come—we are high juniors at last. Joan Brashares is associate editor of the Crimson. Dorothy Tudder and Wilda Suerstedt are feature editors.

March—Marie Wuescher is H-11 representative to the student cabinet.

April—The class is starting to count the days until summer vacation is here.

May—We're still counting.

June—The school "Daze" is over for a summer of sunburn and mosquitoes.

SENIOR YEAR

September—We're seniors now. Joan Brashares is at last editor of the Crimson. Dorothy Tudder is associate, Leta Craft, feature, and Wilda Suerstedt, sports.

October—The Hi-Y skating party at which Anna Jane Davis falls(?).

November—"M. Beaucaire," the term play, is presented with Jerry Wilson the star.

December—Awaiting the day when we can rule this mighty school. Baird Thompson surprises every one with his "all A" report card.

January—At last we are HIGH and MIGHTY seniors. John Parenti is the student body president. Dorothy Tudder is the editor of the Crimson. Ruth Gaston is associate editor. Erna reigns as president of the G. A. A.

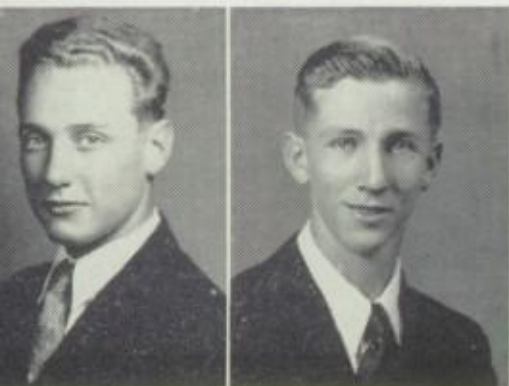

February—Ed Moliero is chosen president of the Block 'R'.

March—"Seven Keys to Baldpate," the term play is given, with Wilda Suerstedt and Martin Wright as the stars. Kenneth Paulsen looks true to life in his portrayal of a ghost. Martin Wright is elected president of our class.

April—Katharine Lorentsen and Agnes Lyons cut fine figures at the Senior informal.

May—Senior Ball—All the lads and lassies turn out for the gala event. May Festival finds Lillis Martin laboriously trying to sell candy.

June—Graduation—219 seniors now march down the aisle to receive their certificates. Three glorious years have come to a sad finish, and thus we leave Roosevelt.

Vice-President Otto Mueller
President Martin Wright
